On the 13th day of June, 1914, the County Court of Iron County, Missouri, made and entered of record an order directing the undersigned Clerk of said Court to publish the result of the Special Election held in said Iron County, Missouri, on the 16th day of May, 1914, to determine whether or not spirituous and intoxicating liquors, including wine and beer, should be sold within the limits of said County, which said order is in words and figures following:

"In The Matter of the Special Election held in Iron County, Missouri, on the 16th day of May, 1914, to determine whether or not spirituous and intoxicating liquors, including wine and beer, should be sold within the limits of said County, it appearing to the Court from the returns of said election, as furnished to this Court by the Clerk thereof, and Wm. A. Townsend and James A. Lewis, two of the Judges of this Court, that the whole number of votes cast in said election were eleven hundred thirty-four; that the whole number of votes cast in said election in favor of the sale of intoxicating liquors were three hundred eighty; that the whole number of votes cast in said election against the sale of intoxicating liquors were seven hundred fifty-four; and that the majority of the votes cast in said election against the sale of intoxicating liquors were three hundred seventy-four. It is therefore ordered by the Court that the Clerk hereof shall cause the result of said election, as ascertained and determined as aforesaid, to be published once a week for four consecutive weeks in the Iron County Register, a weekly newspaper, which is the same newspaper in which the notice of said election was published."

Given under my hand and official seal this 13th day of June, 1914.

TAKE CARDUI The Woman's Tonic

Mrs. Jane Calahan suffered from womanly trouble for nearly ten years. In a letter from Whiteville, N. C., she says: "I was not able to do my own housework. My stomach was weak, and my blood was wrong. I had back-ache, and was very weak. I tried several doctors, but they did me no good. I used Cardui for 3 or 4 months, and now I am in the best health I have ever been. I can never praise Cardui enough." It is the best tonic, for women.

Whether seriously sick, or simply weak, try Cardui.
